Note to Col. Grogan:

Here are the 4 OSS documents you wanted for Mr. Dulles (re. the Whitehead interview last week). They are actually unclassified, not TS, as they appear on file in the OSS archives. (See draft of memo from you to Mr. Dulles, attached.)

Meanwhile I have asked the OSS Archives people (in R&S Bldg.) to check further (from the OSS press scrapbooks there) whether any one or all of these documents was not actually publicly released, either at the time or later. At least one of the military orders did appear publicly at the time--in the Federal Register, if my memory is correct of a book I once wrote on World War II.

P.S., 30 July: The conclusion stands, that all 4 are unclassified; 2 in fact were published in the Released 2000/09/03: CIA-RDP84-00022R000400010018-1. The other two have turned up in OSS Archives--also unclassified. M.P.C.
